

PRASHANT BHANGUI

A Gold Medalist in Surgery from Goa University, India Dr. Prashant Bhangui gained experience in Surgical Gastroenterology and Liver Transplantation at two of the most reputed Institutes in India, G.B. Pant Hospital and Sir Gangaram Hospital, New Delhi. He then successfully completed a Master's Programme in HPB Surgery and Liver Transplantation at the Henri Bismuth Hepatobiliary Institute in France. In recognition of his academic and clinical excellence, he was awarded the Merck KGaA, Germany International Educational Grant for clinical research in the field of colorectal liver metastases (CRLM). He also holds a European Inter University Diploma in HPB Cancers: Oncosurgical Strategies, and has to his credit extensive clinical research in hepatocellular carcinoma (HCC) and CRLM with key publications in high impact factor International journals. He has been an active member of the ILTS since 2010, and has won several awards for his abstracts and presentations. For his academic and clinical excellence in the field of HCC Management, and contribution to the field of Organ Transplantation in India, he was awarded the prestigious K.N. Udupa Memorial Oration 2016 by the Indian Society Of Organ Transplantation (ISOT). He was also conferred the "Vanguard Award 2016" by the International Liver Transplant Society (ILTS) for the best published clinical research paper in top peer reviewed Journals during the entire calendar year 2016.

Currently, Dr.Prashant is a Senior Consultant, Hepatobiliary and Liver Transplant Surgeon at the Medanta-The Medicity Hospital in Delhi NCR. The Institute Of Liver Transplantation and Regenerative Medicine performs more than 300 liver transplants every year, performs all complex hepatobiliary surgeries, and serves as a tertiary referral center for patients with liver, gall bladder, and biliary tract ailments.

Dr.Prashant has been elected to key positions in International Scientific Societies like ILTS [Vanguard Committee Chair 2018-19], and The Transplantation Society (TTS) [Educational Committee Member]. He is also a member of the ESOT, ELITA, AASLD, ILDLT Study Group, IHPBA, IASGO, and ISOT. He is on the Reviewer Panel for Journal Of Hepatology, Liver Transplantation, World Journal Of Surgery, among others.